ad valorem,
plus Rs. 18.70
per kilogram.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Bill seeks to amend the First Schedule to the Indian Tariff Act, 1934 (32 of 1934), in order to continue up to the 31st December, 1974 the protection to the Sericulture Industry, which is in force at present up to the 31st December, 1969. The opportunity has also been taken to effect a slight rationalisation of the existing rates of protective duty on (i) Silk yarn, including silk sewing thread, and silk waste [Items Nos. 40(1), 47 and 47(1)] and (ii) Silk fabrics (Item No. 48), by adopting a single rate of duty in each case instead of the varying rates in force at present, as the differences have ceased to have any special significance. The modifications proposed are indicated below in greater detail:—

| Item No. | Brief description of article | Proposal |
|----------|------------------------------|--|
| 46 | Raw silk | Protection to be extended up to the 31st December, 1974, at the existing effective rates of duty. |
| 46(1) | Silk waste | Protection to be extended up to the 31st December, 1974, at the existing effective rate of duty applicable to sub-item (a) of Item No. 47. |
| 47 | Silk yarn | Do. |
| 47(1) | Silk sewing thread | Do. |
| 48 | Silk fabrics | Protection to be extended up to the 31st December, 1974, at the existing effective rates of duty applicable to sub-items (a) and (b) of Item No. 48. |
